

2021 Peacebuilding Champion Spotlight

2021 PEACEBUILDING COMMUNITY AWARDS

Honoring an organization or person dedicated to spreading peace in Harris or Montgomery County

Organization Category Counseling Center of Montgomery County

“On behalf of the Counseling Center of Montgomery County (CCMC), we are all humbled and grateful for recognizing our organization. When I opened the Counseling Center 10 years ago, my dream was to create a gathering place for anyone to come and find support, compassion, and most of all love. People are extraordinary and our team strives to help each individual identify and improve their gifts and talents, which leads to an improved quality of living. As Pablo Casals once said, ‘To the world you might be one person, but to that one person you might be the world.’ Our original canine ambassador, Beau, passed away two years ago. Charlie is now fulfilling her duties and represents Beau’s legacy, providing a special comfort to those dealing with trauma. Even on the hardest days when we are working with high conflict situations, our team never gives up!

We are so honored to be recognized for the conflict resolution skill building services that we provide through our volunteer therapy with foster youth, to DWI/Drug court diversion participants, and through our work with families involved in high conflict divorces and custody modifications. We are also pleased to be honored as an organization that promotes peace in Montgomery County. Thank you, from the bottom of our hearts, for naming the CCMC as a 2021 Peacebuilding Community Champion.” Rebecca Smith
